We are writing in response to your recent request for an explanation of your overpayment.

Your Benefits

We received information from Germany that you filed for a Pension from them in June 1st, 2012. The pension is based on German earnings record.

Your Social Security is being reduced due to the amount of this pension. The amount of the pension from Germany is $95.14 per month.

The following chart shows your benefit amount(s) before any deductions or rounding. The amount you receive may differ from your full benefit amount. When we figure how much to pay you, we must deduct certain amounts, such as Medicare premiums and worker's compensation offset. We must also round down to the nearest dollar.

Date	Paid(monthly)	Should Pay(monthly)
06/12-11/12	832.60	754.70
12/12-01/13	846.70	767.60

We paid you $6,683.20 for June 2012 through January 2013. Since we should have paid you $6,057.20 for June 2012 through January 2013, we paid you $626.00 more than you were due.

We recovered the overpayment from your April's check.

What We Will Pay

- The next check you receive will be for $662.00, which is the money you are due through July 2013.
- After that, you will receive $662.00 on or about the third of each month.
